PROFILE

Full-Stack Developer and Software Engineer with professional experience in responsive web development and a growing focus on modern full-stack applications. Experienced with React, Next.js, TypeScript and JavaScript, and building backend services with Node.js, Express.js and MongoDB. Comfortable collaborating with teams, using Git-based workflows and developing user-focused interfaces. Interested in software engineering roles where I can contribute to reliable, maintainable products and continue growing as a developer.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Jr. Software Engineer | Xzoona Digital Technology, Chattagram (Jan – Jun 2025)
